

مجلس جائزة شنقيط Conseil du Prix Chinguitt

CALL FOR APPLICATION CHINGUITT PRIZE 2025

The Chinguitt Prize Council is launching a call for applications for the current year. The Prize rewards each year research works in the fields of Islamic Studies, Science and Technology as well as Literature and Arts.

Notable Dates 2025:

- Submission of applications: from the 15th of January to the 31st of March
- Announcement of results: no later than the 31st of October

Prize details:

- A financial reward of an amount of 5,000,000 MRO
- An honorary diploma and a medal

Eligibility criteria:

- Open to Mauritians or foreign researchers, higher education and scientific research establishments and cultural associations
- Applicants works must demonstrate significant creativity and originality in their respective field
- Applicants must fulfil the following conditions during their submission:
 1. The works should not have been published or exhibited for more than 3 years
 2. The works should not have been carried out to obtain a university degree
 3. The works should not have already been awarded a prize

Application file requirements:

- A request duly signed by the candidate specifying the targeted field of application
- A concise Resume (CV) of the candidate and possible recommendations
- A detailed description specifying the methodology and relevance of the work presented
- The work or works presented must be delivered in eight copies (8)
- A sworn statement specifying that the file meets the eligibility criteria

File submission process:

- The application file must be submitted to the permanent secretariat of the Council or sent by post, postmarked as proof of sending date.

Contacts:

- website: <https://www.prixchinguitt.mr>
- E-mail: secretariat@prixchinguitt.mr
- Tel: 00 222 46 83 97 55
- Address: B.P. 2004 Nouakchott, Mauritania.